

Handwritten text in Persian script, likely a manuscript page. The text is densely packed and written in a cursive style. It appears to be a continuation of a text from the reverse side of the page, as indicated by the header. The script is highly stylized and characteristic of historical Persian calligraphy. The text is arranged in several columns, with some lines being longer than others, creating a somewhat irregular layout. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.
